

Logger can upload data to many base stations with no risk that data will be lost, even if data will be fragmented, it will be not a big problem.

It is not acceptable when logger is simultaneously in range of more than one base station, in such case data can be lost or fragmented into unreadable pieces, and finally not recorded at all.

